

Welcome to St Stephen's

BELVEDERE

In the Gospel reading, Jesus continues to describe God's kingdom with a variety of images. Consistently, he does not describe a kingdom that is far off in the future, in some exalted place up there, or somewhere at a great distance out there. Rather, he describes the reign of God by using analogies that are literally very down to earth — a mustard seed that grows into a spacious, welcoming tree; leavening yeast; buried treasure; a pearl of great worth; a fishing net. He describes invaluable qualities that are not readily seen. Using such everyday imagery — things that lie close at hand — Jesus emphasizes the message that, even when all appearances point to the contrary, the reign of God is near. We need only eyes to see, ears to hear, and hearts to reach toward it.

Welcome to St Stephen's, a community seeking to perceive, promote, and proclaim the reign of God among us.

THE SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

Worship is a verb. from the Altar of this sacred space to the altar of your heart in the sacred space of your home. We welcome you to join us in the active worship of God. This service is based on the Holy Eucharist Liturgy of the Scottish Episcopal Church, 1982, printed herein.

At the Procession

Hymn 635 If thou but trust in God to guide thee WER NUR DEN LIEBEN GOTT

If thou but suffer God to guide thee,
and hope in him through all thy ways,
He'll give thee strength, whatever betide thee,
and bear thee through the evil days:
Who trusts in God's unchanging love builds on the rock that naught can move.

Sing, pray, and keep his ways unswerving,
so do thine own part faithfully,
and trust his word, though undeserving,
Thou yet shalt find it true for thee;
God never yet forsook at need the soul that trusted him indeed.

— Georg Neumark (1621 – 1681); tr. Catherine Winkworth (1827 – 1878)

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The Collect for the Seventh Sunday after Trinity

Celebrant May God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: Increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The people sit.

The First Reading Genesis 29. 15 – 28

Laban said to Jacob, “Because you are my kinsman, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall your wages be?” Now Laban had two daughters; the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. Leah’s eyes were lovely, and Rachel was graceful and beautiful. Jacob loved Rachel; so he said, “I will serve you seven years for your younger daughter Rachel.” Laban said, “It is better that I give her to you than that I should give her to any other man; stay with me.” So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed to him but a few days because of the love he had for her.

Then Jacob said to Laban, “Give me my wife that I may go in to her, for my time is completed.” So Laban gathered together all the people of the place, and made a feast. But in the evening he took his daughter Leah and brought her to Jacob; and he went in to her. (Laban gave his maid Zilpah to his daughter Leah to be her maid.) When morning came, it was Leah! And Jacob said to Laban, “What is this you have done to me? Did I not serve with you for Rachel? Why then have you deceived me?” Laban said, “This is not done in our country — giving the younger before the firstborn. Complete the week of this one, and we will give you the other also in return for serving me another seven years.” Jacob did so, and completed her week; then Laban gave him his daughter Rachel as a wife.

People Thanks be to God.

Antiphon Let us sing to the Lord for all the good he has done for us.

Give thanks to the LORD and call upon his Name; *
make known his deeds among the peoples.

Sing to him, sing praises to him, *
and speak of all his marvelous works.

Glory in his holy Name; *
let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.

Search for the LORD and his strength; *
continually seek his face.

Remember the marvels he has done, *
his wonders and the judgments of his mouth,

O offspring of Abraham his servant, *
o children of Jacob his chosen.

He is the LORD our God; *
his judgments prevail in all the world.

He has always been mindful of his covenant, *
the promise he made for a thousand generations:

The covenant he made with Abraham, *
the oath that he swore to Isaac,

Which he established as a statute for Jacob, *
an everlasting covenant for Israel,

Saying, “To you will I give the land of Canaan *
to be your allotted inheritance.”

Hallelujah!

Antiphon Let us sing to the Lord for all the good he has done for us.

The Epistle Reading Romans 8. 26 – 39

The Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn within a large family. And those whom he predestined he also called; and those whom he called he also justified; and those whom he justified he also glorified.

What then are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us? He who did not withhold his own Son, but gave him up for all of us, will he not with him also give us everything else? Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? It is Christ Jesus, who died, yes, who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us. Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will hardship, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written,

“For your sake we are being killed all day long; we are accounted as sheep to be slaughtered.”

No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel Matthew 13. 31 – 33. 44 – 52

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus put before the crowds another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in his field; it is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches.”

He told them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour until all of it was leavened.”

“The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which someone found and hid; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls; on finding one pearl of great value, he went and sold all that he had and bought it.

“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and caught fish of every kind; when it was full, they drew it ashore, sat down, and put the good into baskets but threw out the bad. So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous and throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

“Have you understood all this?” They answered, “Yes.” And he said to them, “Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old.”

The Homily

Phil Ellsworth

After the homily, the people stand to say the Nicene Creed.

The Nicene Creed Standing

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again

in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the \times resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Cantor: We pray . . .

Leader All

We pray for those needful or desirous of our prayers, including Martha, Stanley, Renata, Betty, and Carol.

We pray for those who have died, including Sean McGee,
Alexander Knepper, and Muriel White Stehouwer.

And on her Year's Mind, we remember and pray for Josephine Harkin.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

The Confession Said by all, kneeling or standing.

The Celebrant says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

Celebrant and People The people respond with the bolded sentences.

Gracious God, we have come to see that our lives fall far short of your glory.
Have mercy and forgive us.

You have given your Son for us, and poured out your Spirit, yet we fail to return your love with all our heart.
Have mercy and change us.

Too often we are selfish and proud, ignoring you and neglecting others.
Have mercy and cleanse us.

When we do not truly trust and obey you, we are overwhelmed by self-pity, fear and worry.
Have mercy and deliver us.

In Christ we are given a sure hope and secure love, yet we follow the false hopes and desires of this world.
Have mercy and renew us.

O God, through the redeeming death of your Son, by your Spirit, and through your word, enable us to follow you with joy.
All this we ask, confident of your faithfulness and love. Amen.

The Absolution

The Celebrant pronounces an absolution.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

Celebrant

Worship and praise belong to you, maker of light and darkness. Your wisdom draws beauty from chaos, brings a harvest out of sorrow, and leads the exiles home. In Christ your Son, enemies are reconciled, debts forgiven and strangers made welcome.

The Celebrant proceeds.

We who by Christ's power follow the way of the Cross, sharing the joy of his obedience, now offer you our praise, with angels and archangels and the whole company of heaven, we sing the hymn of your unending glory:

Sanctus Rose Hill Mass

John Karl Hirten (b. 1956)

The people remain standing and sing.

san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est!

The people stand or kneel.

The Celebrant continues.

Glory and thanksgiving be to you, most loving God, for Christ in whom the world is reconciled. Lifted on the cross, his suffering and forgiveness spanned the gulf our sins had made. Through that dark struggle, death was swallowed up in victory, that life and light might reign.

Before he was given up to suffering and death, and at supper with his disciples, he took bread and offered you thanks. He broke the bread, and gave it to them, saying: "Take, eat. This is my Body: it is broken for you."

After supper, he took the cup, he offered you thanks, and gave it to them saying: "Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new covenant; it is poured out for you, and for all, that sins may be forgiven. Do this in remembrance of me."

We now obey your Son's command. We recall his blessed passion and death, his glorious resurrection and ascension; and we look for the coming of your Kingdom. Made one with him, we offer you these gifts and with them ourselves, a holy and living sacrifice.

Hear us, most merciful God, and send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon this bread and this wine, that, overshadowed by his life-giving power, they may be the Body and Blood of your Son, and we may be kindled with the fire of your love and renewed for service.

Help us, who are gathered into the community of Christ's body to live and work to your praise and glory; may we grow together in unity and love until at last, in your new creation, we enter into our heritage in the company of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the apostles, and prophets, and of all our brothers and sisters living and departed.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory be to you, world without end. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power
and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

At the Breaking of the Bread

Peregrine Tone

Repeat refrain after the cantor the first time.

Choir: Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

All: There-fore let us keep the feast._

The Peace

Invitation

At the Communion

How will I receive the Sacrament if not by mouth? By faith. The Church has been through pestilence and passed its wisdom down to us in the Book of Common Prayer. Here's the rubric [instruction] from the 1689 Prayer Book translated into contemporary Californian: "But if a person, either by reason of extremity of sickness or . . . by any other just impediment, cannot receive the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood: the Clergy shall instruct them that if they repent of their sins, and believe that Jesus Christ has suffered death upon the Cross for them, and shed his Blood for their redemption, earnestly remembering the benefits they have received thereby . . . they eat and drink the Body and Blood of our Savior Christ profitably to their soul's health, although they do not receive the Sacrament with their mouth."

Via live stream you will receive what Tradition calls Spiritual Communion. Inclining your hearts, you will eat and drink the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ to your soul's health, although you do not receive the Sacrament with your mouth.

Communion Music

Communion Hymn 385 Many and great, O God, are thy works

DAKOTA INDIAN CHANT

Many and great, O God, are thy works, maker of earth and sky;
thy hands have set the heavens with stars;
thy fingers spread the mountains and plains.
Lo, at thy word the waters were formed; deep seas obey thy voice.

Grant unto us communion with thee, thou star abiding one;
come unto us and dwell with us; with thee are found the gifts of life.
Bless us with life that has no end, eternal life with thee.

— Joseph Renville (ca. 1835), tr. Philip Frazier (1892 – 1964)

The Post-Communion Prayer of Thanksgiving The people stand.

After Communion, the Celebrant says Let us pray.

Said by all.

Almighty Creator of all, we give you thanks and praise that when we were still far off you met us in your Son and brought us home. Dying and living, he declared your love, gave us grace, and opened the gate of glory. May we who share Christ's body live his risen life; we who drink his cup bring life to others; we whom the Spirit enlightens, give light to the world. Keep us firm in the hope you have set before us, so we and all your children shall be free, and the whole earth live to praise your name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing The people remain standing and respond Amen at the conclusion.

Celebrant

God the Holy Trinity, make you strong in faith and love, defend you on every side, and guide you in truth and peace; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit be with you this day and ever more. Amen.

At the Retiring Procession

Hymn 533 How wondrous and great thy works, God of praise LYONS

How wondrous and great thy works, God of praise!

How just, King of saints, and true are thy ways!

O who shall not fear thee and honor thy Name?

Thou only art holy, thou only supreme.

To nations of earth thy light shall be shown;

their worship and vows shall come to thy throne:

thy truth and thy judgements shall spread all abroad,

till earths every people confess thee their God.

— Henry Onderdonk (1759 – 1858)

The Dismissal

Priest Go in peace, caring for creation, serving Christ,

The Postlude

— Music Notes —

British hymn-writer Catherine Winkworth (1827 – 1878) grew up in a forward-thinking Unitarian household. She developed an interest in German hymnody after a year-long stay in Dresden, Germany. The result of that trip was Lyra Germanica, Hymns for the Sundays and chief festivals of the Christian Year (London, 1855). Her work continues to appear in many hymnals from different traditions, and she is commemorated as a hymnwriter with John Mason Neale in the liturgical calendar of the Episcopal Church. The original hymn, “If thou but suffer God to guide thee,” and tune are both by Georg Neumark (1621 – 1681), and Winkworth’s original translation was in a different meter than Neumark’s which meant that it could not be used with the original tune. For a later hymnal, Winkworth made a new translation so it could be rematched with the tune.

Ralph Vaughan Williams was known for his symphonies and chamber music, operas and film scores, and is acknowledged as one of the greatest English composers who has ever lived. A grand-nephew of Charles Darwin, he was an atheist in his early life but grew to be an agnostic. Even so, he composed a sizable amount of religious music (even during his years as an atheist), writing works for church services, hymns, psalm settings and the like. “O Taste and See” is from Psalm 34. 8, and is very simple and spare at the beginning, but slowly growing more full as it progresses, much as the love of God is appreciated by those who are blessed.
